

FSU Center for Autism & Related Disabilities Explore Your Inner Artist

FSU CARD (Pensacola office) is offering a series of five art classes for CARD clients ages 16 and up. The classes will be led by Laura Keith King, a professional and acclaimed teaching artist.

Participants will explore multiple ways of artistic expression in a personalized group setting. Space is limited to 8 participants.

FSU CARD is dedicated to providing individuals with autism or related disabilities, their families, and professionals who work with them, free consultation, resources, and educational support to build knowledge, confidence, infrastructure, and sustainability within the community.
