

FSU Center for Autism & Related Disabilities Parents' Place - Elementary Webinar: Social Skills

Social Skills are important in the lives of all children, yet can be a challenge for those with autism. Join us to learn how to build and support your child's social skills for improved interactions and stronger relationships!

FSU CARD is dedicated to providing individuals with autism or related disabilities, their families, and professionals who work with them, free consultation, resources, and educational support to build knowledge, confidence, infrastructure, and sustainability within the community.
